SWEEPING INQUIRY INTO POLICE LAXITY BY SPECIAL JURY

James W. Osborne Begins Assembling Evidence for Hearing Before Goff.

Preparations were being made today by James W. Osborne, special prosecutor for a general investigation into the Police Department because an extraordinary Grand Jury is to be organized by Justice Goff, early in September. The Whitman, ex-cise, and other departments are also under an extraordinary term of the Criminal Branch of the Supreme Court beginning Aug. 25.

Evidence gathered before the Grand Jury investigating the police laxity in the North Cruger case, brought about the suggestion in the Governor from Mr. Osborne that the Police Department has apparently gone back to the conditions which existed prior to the assassination of Herman Rosenthal.

Mr. Osborne has kept Gov. Whitman fully informed as to the evidence, which he sums up in the words, "rotten expediency."

"If the North Cruger case is a revision of the work done on other cases by the police," Mr. Osborne's assistant said today, "then the Police Department must be at a low ebb."

The Grand Jury will in all probability be relieved of its work to-morrow.

Before being discharged the jury will, it is said in the District Attorney's office, file at least two indicements against police officers as a result of their inquiry. A committee of the Grand Jury has been appointed to formulate a presentment urging that the Police Department, especially the Detective Bureau, be reorganized.

Attorney Florence J. Sullivan, counsel for Detective Lagaraine, under indictment for neglect of duty for failure to report the true character of Alfredo Cocchi to his superiors, today argued a demurrer to the indicement before Judge McIntyre, who reserved decision.

G. W. MURRAY SHOOTSELF.

Sarah Bernhardt's Agent Ends Life at Port Washington.

George W. Murray, formerly very active in theatrical circles, shot himself twice in the head at his home in Port Washington, L. I., at noon to-day. He was hurried to Flushing Hospital and died there immediately after his arrival.

Mr. Murray was advance agent for Sarah Bernhardt's projected tour in this country which was cut short by her very serious illness this summer.
He had invested heavily in the enterprise and the reverses to his plans caused a nervous breakdown which forced him to go to a sanitarium, from which he recently returned to his home.

HENKEL FACES YEAR IN JAIL; TOOK LIQUOR TO GEORGIA

Popular Metropolitan Opera House Business Manager Spends Night in a Police Station.

Special to The New York World.
ATLANTA, Ga., Aug. 2.—Ernest Henkel, business manager of the Metropolitan Opera Company, was taken from a hotel to the police station at midnight on a charge of violating the prohibition laws. It was reported before he arrived at the station that he had been arrested on a $100 bond.

Mr. Henkel had just come South on a combination business and pleasure trip. He had figured that it wouldn't be so bad to have a little something to eat when he got to prohibition territory. To his surprise and chagrin he found he was arrested by city and Federal detectives. They found three quarts of whiskey and about half a dozen quarts of wine and beer in one of his trunks.

Mr. Henkel protested that the insults were for his own personal use, but that didn't make any difference, so he was hustled to Police Headquarters.

"Ridiculous," he said to The Evening World correspondent, "ridiculous to believe I would sell intoxicants." "Did you know," Mr. Henkel was asked, "that one could be put in jail for a year for violating the prohibition laws?"

"Got in himself," he exclaimed.

600 WOMEN IN BIFURCATED UNIFORMS FOR R. R. SHOPS

Pennsylvania Company Announces Plans for Use of Female Labor in Various Departments.

PORT WAYNE, Ind., Aug. 2.— Local officials of the Pennsylvania Railroad announced to-day that the company's shops here were now open to the employment of women. Arrangements are being made for the proper accommodation of 600 female workers in the machine shop, round-houses, shop yards and other departments. The women will be used in the distribution of material, cleaning cars and in caretaking about the plant here.

The officials have decided to adopt one-piece uniforms for the women, consisting of a suit that is bifurcated at the knees and fastened at the ankles with buttons or buckles. The women will be paid the same wages as the men for the same classes of work, and will be eligible to all the privileges and benefits of the Pen-sylvania relief department.
